A LOAFER'S DEED.

Beats and Kills His Wife and Then Commits Suicide.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., July 16.—The residence of Hank Hall, a dissipated old character, was the scene this morning of an awful tragedy. Hall came home drunk, last night, beat his wife and threw her out of doors in her night clothes. This morning at daylight, the woman entered the house to get her clothing. Hall set upon her, beat her to the floor with a revolver and then fired a bullet into her head. Several neighbors heard the shot and ran in. George Bennett attempted to disarm him but fled on receiving a bullet in the hand. Hall emptied the revolver at others without effect. Then he went into the house and cut his throat. The wife died in a short time, but Hall may recover.

Hot Prohibitionists in Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 16.—Five thousand delegates attended the convention of the State Temperance League called to express its opinions on the Original Package decision of the Federal Supreme Court. Energetic speeches were made and resolutions adopted condemning the decision and demanding of Congress the passage of a bill to place the enforcement of Prohibitory laws entirely with the State and beyond the interference of the National Government.

Bert Jeffery, of Hollister, Cal., has confessed to a series of forgeries on his uncle, John Breen, amounting to about $450. He was arrested at Pacific Grove.
